Helpful Hints

Please remember to double-check your shipping address with your school (note: your dorm may not accept large packages so the best address might be different from your dorm address).

It may also be helpful to check with your school about their policies regarding package delivery. Some schools have strict policies about accepting packages during "move-in" times and we want to ensure that your boxes will be waiting for you on the day that you move in.

Feel free to contact us with any questions about this catalogue or the order process!!
